Fourth Week of Advent

December 19, 2021

10:00 AM

Welcome to worship at St. Luke's. We value your participation in our worship service and feel truly blessed by your presence today. Everyone is invited to fill out a welcome card. Please note any prayer requests on the back of the card. They may be placed in the offering plate.

Today we celebrate the service of Lessons and Carols. The O Antiphons are the central piece. Each invokes the Messiah under a different title derived from the Old Testament. This title is then amplified and followed by an appeal to "come and save us." Around the twelfth century, they were collected into a Latin verse hymn, which was later translated by John Mason Neale to become, "O Come, O Come Emmanuel."

GATHERING

PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS {Front Center} (Pastor Rob)

BLESSING OF THE ADVENT WREATH (Nick, Gina, Jada & Luke)

L: Last Sunday we lit the candle of Hope, remembering the hope which comes in Christ, the candle of Peace, remembering God's dream of a peaceful world, and the candle of Joy, remembering the Spirit within us who brings joy. (Light Hope, Peace, Joy Candles). Today we light the fourth candle of Advent, the candle of Love. Scripture tells us "There is no fear in love, for perfect love casts out fear." (1 John 4:18). God created this world in love and this world will end in the love of God. God's love pervades all aspects of this life. From birth to death, pain to delight, strangers to lovers, God's love is there. We light this candle in Love. (Light Candle)

C: On this day, we remember God is Love.

With Permission: Rev. Will Ryan, First Christian Church (DOC), Burlington, Iowa. Liturgy Links - 2016
